3. Discussion

a. End of the Year Tournament Details

- i. What vendors have townships used in the past?
- ii. What has been successful?
- iii. What has been a failure?
- iv. What are common issues that you may face on the day of the event?
- v. Any advice for townships doing this for the first time?

Lee, Washington Twp

- Food vendors ($200 for one day tournament)
- Try to find local vendors
- Make sure that you situate parking ahead
- Make sure that you address what parents can and can't do with tents (Can they have them? When are they required to take them down?).
- Make sure you have enough porta potties if needed.

b. Competition Committee:

- i. Thinking about having this committee meet several times over the summer, to explore ways to increase the competitiveness in the league (White board meetings).

Chris Rosenbleeth

- We want to address the competition issues that we have been having over the past couple seasons.
- This would be brainstorming sessions, looking to have a few concrete ideas to present for the first general meeting next season
- All proposed changes would have to be discussed and voted on

Matt Scassero

- Has no issues with running meetings into the summer for competition committee

c. Notes regarding the Executive Committee:

Chris Rosenbleeth

- The Executive Committee is looking take steps to present itself more professionally
- Looking to disperse responsibilities and make the Executive Committee roles more easily interchangeable. There should not be a single point of failure.

Lee Robledo

- We are going to have to make sure we do not take time off in the summer.
- June meeting, who is the new director taking over at your club?
- It was unfair to the new directors as they had a lot piled onto them.

Brad Hays

- 5/6 A & 7/8 A, Competition Committee should think about reaching outside of the league to schedule games.

4. Open Floor

Cherokee High School is running a summer league.

- Games in Marlton, 1 game per week
- Playoffs and Championship
- Casual environment

Are all the rosters posted in ZerbraWeb for playoff teams?

- This is a requirement for SJYLL Playoffs

After the playoff games, please have coaches email Lee Robledo the scores of the games
